

GEOGRAPHY – 1715

The object of this minor is to acquaint the student with the differences and similarities that exist from place to place on the earth's surface in both the natural and cultural environments. It is designed to accommodate a range of interests from the very general to specific subject matter within geography. Education majors who would be involved with a social studies curriculum would also find the minor beneficial.

REQUIRED COURSES: (12 credits)

GEG 101 World Natural Environments

GEG 102 Man's Cultural Environment

One of the following Map related courses:

GEG 304 Map Interpretation

GEG 413 Cartography

PLN 325 Map & Air Photo Interpretation

One of the following Regional courses:

GEG 351 Geography of Africa

GEG 352 Geography of Europe

GEG 353 Geography of the Soviet Union

ELECTIVE COURSES: (6 credits selected with advisement)

GEG 303 World Climatology

GEG 305 Economic Geography

GEG 307 Conservation & Environmental Management

GEG 309 Introduction to Urban Geography

GEG 310 Geography of Transportation

GEG 320 Historical Geography of the United States

GEG 350 Comparative Canadian-U.S. Metropolitan Systems

GEG 357 Geography of Buffalo & the Niagara Region

GEG 365 Soil Science and Management

GEG 370 Principles of Water Resource Management

GEG 375 Principles of Hydrology

TOTAL NUMBER OF CREDITS - 18