

PLANNING —1738

The objective of this minor is to introduce students to the discipline of Planning and to familiarize them with some of the fundamental approaches to the discipline. It is primarily designed for arts and science majors who would like to enhance their employment opportunities in a planning related area, or who desire to pursue graduate training in such an area.

REQUIRED COURSES: (9 credits)

PLN 315 Introduction to Community Planning
GEG 305 Economic Geography
ECO 202 Principles of Macroeconomics

ELECTIVE COURSES: (9 credits selected with advisement)

PLN 325 Map & Air Photo Interpretation
PLN 380 Neighborhood Revitalization
PLN 412 Community Planning Agencies and Issues
PLN 415 Seminar in Planning
GEG 307 Conservation & Environmental Management
GEG 309 Introduction to Urban Geography
GEG 310 Geography of Transportation
GEG 330 Land Resources Analysis & Planning
GEG 365 Soil Science and Management
GEG 370 Principles of Water Resource Management
GEG 375 Principles of Hydrology

TOTAL NUMBER OF CREDITS

ENTRY TO MINOR: NO Requirements

TRANSFER CREDIT: A maximum of two transfer courses are accepted toward fulfillment of the minor.