School of Natural and Social Sciences

Buffalo State College

PREAMBLE

- A. The School of Natural and Social Sciences establishes these By-Laws for its self-governance, relative to the academic and professional aspects of its programs.
- B. Other documents that take precedence over these By-Laws in the event of conflict are: laws of the State of New York; Policies of the Board of Trustees of SUNY; Contract of the bargaining Agent; and SUCB College By-Laws.

MISSION STATEMENT

The School of Natural and Social Sciences seeks to be the leader among the SUNY Colleges in regard to the scholarly achievements of faculty and students, level of accreditation, infrastructure, technology, and library support. The central mission of the School of Natural and Social Sciences is to enable students, staff and faculty to achieve their full potential in an environment that fosters intellectual growth through discovery. We achieve this mission by ...

- Providing high-quality comprehensive degree programs wherein students can acquire the knowledge, skills and experiences necessary for success
- Encouraging students' understanding and appreciation for the relevance of natural science, social science and mathematics in everyday life
- Integrating coursework with research and hands-on experience
- Helping students to develop skills in analytical thinking, quantitative methods, problem-solving, critical thinking and effective communication
- Embracing diversity and preparing students for engagement in the world as tolerant, informed citizens of the global community
- Enabling students, staff and faculty to gain new knowledge and expand their research and scholarly horizons
- Encouraging faculty growth in teaching, excellence in scholarship and faculty service within our disciplines and to the wider community
- Fostering an atmosphere of camaraderie and intellectual stimulus
- Applying interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary approaches to issues in the United States and abroad
- Contributing to the college community, western New York and beyond, through outreach, engagement and public education

 - b. This committee shall be charged with recommending policies consistent with College policy specified by College By-Laws, relating to the professional welfare of the faculty, including academic freedom, tenure, conditions of service, appointment, termination, promotion and retention of faculty.
 4. Budget and Staff Allocations Committee
 - a. The committee shall consist of five members of the Voting Faculty, elected by the voting faculty, so that two are from the Natural Sciences, two are from the Social Sciences, and one is from the School-at-Large.
 - b. This committee shall be charged with making recommendations to the Dean regarding budget preparation and allocations, space and staff allocations and the relation of these to instruction and research.
 - c. The committee shall report to the School an annual summary of the data on budget and allocations as actually put into effect by the Dean, and how these comply with the recommendations approved by the School.

- B. The chairpersons of all standing committees shall serve as an Advisory Committee to the Chairperson of the School. The School Chairperson, upon recommendation of the Advisory Committee, shall make temporary appointments to fill committee vacancies until elections can be held.
- C. Ad Hoc Committees
 - 1. An Ad Hoc committee may be established at any General Meeting or through appointment by the Chairperson of the School.
 - 2. An Ad Hoc committee shall report to the School at a General Meeting.
- D. External Committees
 - 1. The Chair of the SNSS in consultation with faculty, shall make a determination of whether an External Committee will be placed in (a) or (b) below.
 - a. College-wide Committees with SNSS Elected Representatives
If a committee is determined to be served with elected representatives and has more than one representative, then both the Natural Sciences and Social Sciences should be represented.
 - b. Other External Committees
All representatives of the Natural and Social Sciences School shall be appointed by the Dean of the School in consultation with the Chairperson of the School.

ARTICLE V: REVIEW OF THE DEAN

The committee shall be elected at the beginning of the last year of the Dean's tenure in office, but at least every third year. The Committee shall consist of five members of the Voting Faculty, elected by the voting faculty, so that two are from the Natural Sciences, two are from the Social Sciences, and one is from the Faculty-at-Large.

The committee shall be charged with reviewing the performance of the Dean during the past three years of the Dean's term in office; it shall discuss its review with the Dean; it shall make recommendations to the President of the College for the retention or removal of the Dean, and it shall report these recommendations to the School at a General Meeting.

ARTICLE VI: PROCEDURE

Unless otherwise specified in these By-Laws:

- A. All business shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order (latest edition);
- B. An election shall be by secret ballot, if even a single Voting Member so requests;
