

JOB SEARCH FACTS FOR TEACHERS:

Local school districts received 15,473 resumes from education majors for Teacher Recruitment Days in 2008 (5,106 from Buffalo State students)

A suburban district in WNY has 7,000 computerized applications on file, including 1,280 for elementary school positions.

On average a school district spends 10 seconds looking at your resume to decide whether you will be called in for an interview.

HOW CAN EDUCATION MAJORS BE SUCCESSFUL IN A COMPETITIVE JOB MARKET?

Career Development Day for Education Majors / JOBS: MYTHS & REALITIES

Friday December 12, 2008 • Warren Enters Theatre • 8:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Program Highlights:

- ◆ Get “inside scoop” on how to get a teaching job from area superintendents, principals, and recent graduates.
- ◆ Learn how to be competitive when there are 1000 applications for some local teaching openings.
- ◆ Polish your job search techniques; writing an education resume, presenting a good cover letter and discovering what administrators look for during teaching interviews.
- ◆ Find out how to register for Teacher Recruitment Days 2009 and get a jump start on applying for positions.

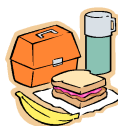

Everyone student teaching in Spring 2009 must attend (it's required by your department)

Education graduate and certification only students are also welcome to attend!

It is your only opportunity this semester to attend a job searching workshop for education majors.
